

Other Notes:

- Attempting to place orders, commission artists, or perform any unauthorized action will prompt a pop-up window informing the User that they must be logged in.

Clicking a waitlist commission expands an option to accept, which redirects to the New Product page.

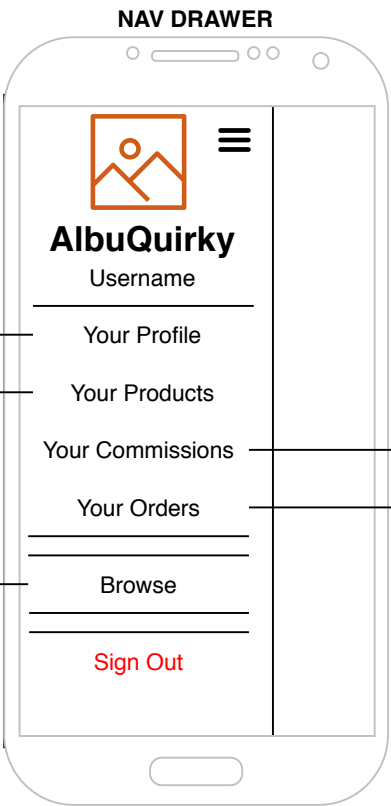

The Commissions page shows all commissions sent and received.

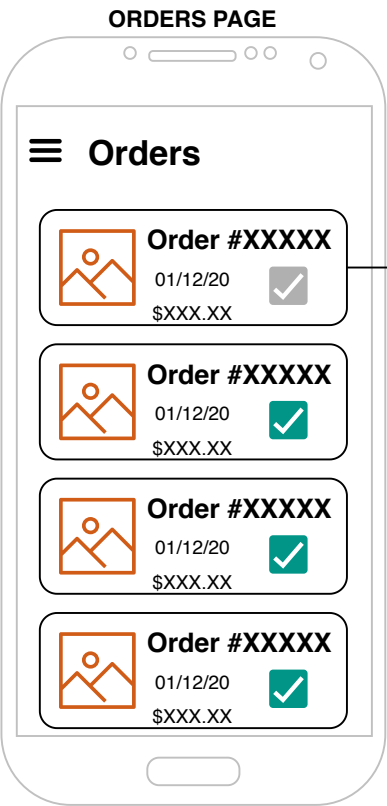

The Profile page for any artist. "Your Profile" displays the User's own Profile.

"Your Products" displays a list of Products, similar to the Profile page...

...then displays the corresponding Product page the User selects.

"Your Orders" displays a list of all Orders the User has placed.

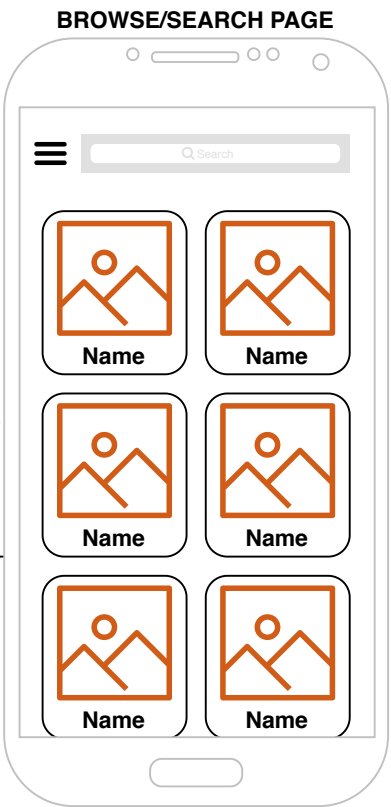

Selecting an Order displays that Order in greater detail.

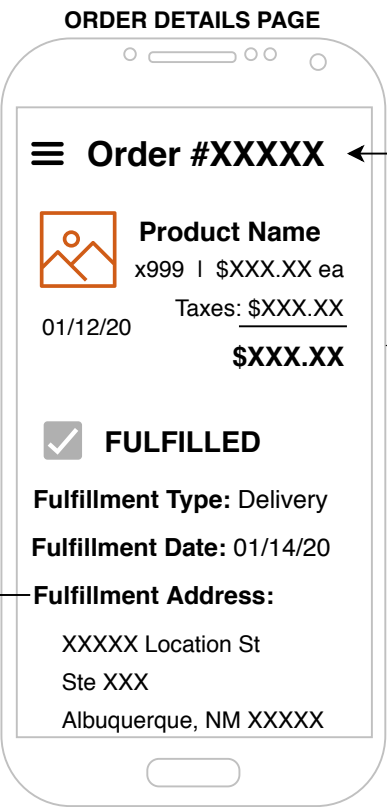

Clicking on a Product redirects to the Product Page for that Product.

Clicking "Buy" takes the User to the Place Order page.

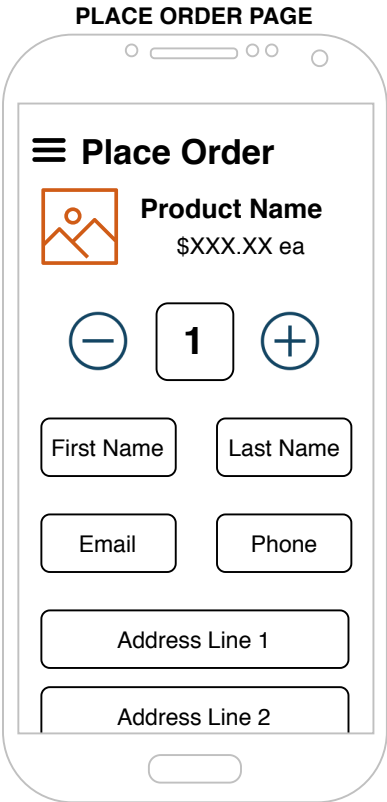

"Browse" allows the User to search for Products.

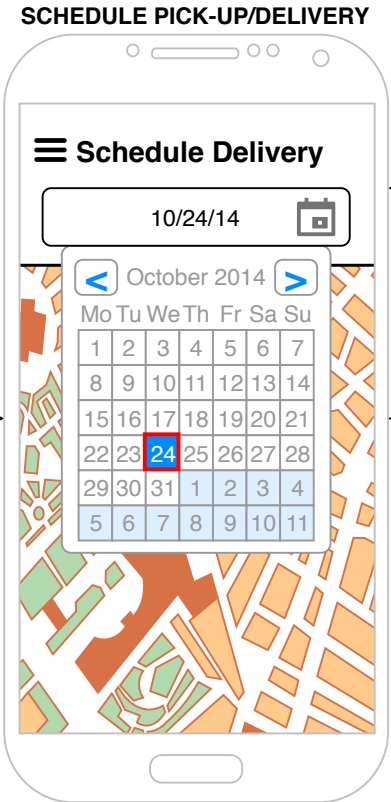

Selecting a Product card takes the User to that Product's page.

Once the Order is placed, the User sees the Order Details page, and the app puts the delivery on the User's calendar.

If Pick-Up or Delivery is chosen as the fulfillment method, the User is taken to the Schedule page...

The User can edit the Pick-Up or Delivery details, and both the Buyer and the Seller must confirm completion to mark an order fulfilled.

...the User then verifies that all Order details are correct before confirming the Order.
